Maria Montessori was born on 31 August 1870 in the town of Chiaravalle, Italy. Her father, Alessandro, was an accountant in the civil service, and her mother, Renilde Stoppani, was well educated and had a passion for reading. The Montessori family moved to Rome in late 1874, and in 1876 the young Maria enrolled in the local state school on Via di San Nicolo da Tolentino.

The more your baby is surrounded by language, the more they will learn. You can tell your baby about what you are doing, when you change their nappy, or about what will come next in the day. You can name things in your baby's environment to provide even more language. Your baby enjoys listening to you and watching your mouth move as you speak.
