The Human Face of Jesus by Alfred McBride

Jesus Christ is sort of what the Bible says. That pretty much encapsulates Jesus, the Human Face of God. In this book, Jay Parini uses the Bible text as a core to explain the life of Jesus, but he does allow extra-biblical "gospels" and more liberal theologians to round out his "biography" of Jesus.

I believe part of Jesus' mission on earth was to reveal the heavenly father's human face to us. We see this in the passage when Christ told his disciples he was about to return to the father. He said, "Whither I go ye know, and the way ye know" (14:4). When the disciples heard this, they were dumbfounded.

Jesus: The Lion, the Ox, the Man, and the Eagle. Most of us are likely familiar with the parallel which has often been noted between the four Gospel Accounts and the four living creatures in the opening vision of the prophet Ezekiel (Ezekiel 1:10). The lion symbolizes supreme strength, kingship; the man, highest intelligence; the ox, lowly service; the eagle, heavenliness, mystery, divinity.
