An urge to drink can be set off by external triggers in the environment and internal ones within yourself. External triggers are people, places, things, or times of day that offer drinking opportunities or remind you of drinking. These "high-risk situations" are more obvious, predictable, and avoidable than internal triggers.

Application: Satan will do his best to tempt, trick, and trap every follower of Jesus (1 Peter 5:8). He is very clever. He knows all of our weaknesses, and he will always try to catch us off guard. Unlike Jesus, we are all born with a sin nature (Romans 5:12; 7:18). This means, without God's help, rebelling against God is natural to us.

Resisting the Devil is easier when we “Put on the full armor of God so that you can take your stand against the devil’s schemes” (Ephesians 6:11). We must be “ self-controlled and alert ” because the “ enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour ” (1 Peter 5:8) and this way we “ do not give the devil a foothold ” (Ephesians 4:27).
