In The Heart Of The Garden by Leah Fleming is a marvellous epic tale of a garden
through nearly a thousand years. The reader is there at the start as the land is cultivated and two families meet. We journey down the years

Flowing back and forth from the owner's past to the present builds a story of hope lost and found in the garden of the estate, the layers of color begin added gently but getting brighter with each word. Several other characters are drawn into the story, each adding their bits of color, making the picture and the garden, take on depth.
